Music Therapy

Organisation details

Description of activity

Richmond Music Service runs a music therapy service for children with SEN, offering music therapy services in Kingston, Richmond and Hounslow. As well as our provision in Richmond we are working in partnership with Kingston Music Service, providing a service from our therapy room at the Hook Centre in Chessington. We also offer outreach service, visiting local schools, providing a service on site.

Fees payable but with some concessions available depending on ability to pay from charitable donations
