Organisation details

Description of activity

Richmond Mencap is a local registered charity which supports adults and children with learning disabilities, social communication conditions, ADHD and other additional needs and their families and carers.

We offer:

- Advice, information, workshops and training for the people we work with, families and other organisations.
- Groups and activities for children, young people and adults with learning disabilities, social communication conditions, ADHD and other additional needs.

These includes social activities, drama sessions, discos, holidays and trips.

- A self-advocacy group.
