Otakar Kraus Music Trust

Organisation details

Description of activity

Otakar Kraus Music Trust is an independent charity established in 1991 to provide music therapy for people of all ages who have physical, psychological, behavioural, learning or emotional difficulties. It also helps to promote music therapy generally. We firmly believe that every child, irrespective of disabilities, is worthy of respect and entitled to the best quality of life attainable.

MUSIC THERAPY CENTRE

Our purpose-built, fire-approved studio in Twickenham is equipped with piano, instruments, recording equipment, viewing room, waiting room, wheelchair access and disabled toilet.
