Marble Hill Playcentres

Organisation details

Description of activity

Marble Hill Playcentres (MHPC) is a charity and voluntary organisation is run by a group of local parents These Playcentres are a much loved local establishment offering unique, quality indoor and outdoor play opportunities for children aged 0 – 15 and for those with additional needs.

SENSational Saturday Club

This extremely successful project includes exclusive play sessions designed specifically for children and young people with additional needs, their parents or care givers and siblings. We also have an Inclusive Playworker who supports children with additional needs within the mainstream sessions. One to one support is also available for your child if they need it in order to access the mainstream sessions. There is no need to pre book your visit.

One o'clock club

Aged 0 - 5yrs

We offer a positive and vibrant play environment for children to enjoy alongside a friendly social environment for parents and carers. Our drop-in play facility offers a variety of activities to cater for babies and children in their early years. Experienced Playworkers are always on hand to offer play opportunities for parents and carers and to offer help and advice
