RISE (Richmond upon Thames Inclusive Sport and Exercise)

Organisation details

Description of activity

RISE is the London Borough of Richmond upon Thames Sports Development Team initiative promoting inclusive and disability specific sport and exercise activities. The initiative aims to highlight the wide range of inclusive and disability specific sport and exercise activities available in the borough.

We run regular weekly activities and RISE events where the activities are carefully selected to ensure that people are able to continue with any chosen sport beyond the RISE event by joining a local sports club or class.
