Organisation details

Description of activity

Metro Blind Sport welcomes people of all ages and abilities

Metro is a London-based charity whose Director of Sport Development is a Kingston resident. Their aim is to open doors to sport for all vision impaired people, regardless of age or ability. They also encourage members to get together to enjoy social as well as sporting activities and produce two newsletters a month which are mobile friendly and in the format of your choice. Visit their website to find out about the range of activities on offer which include:

- Archery
- Athletics
- Bowls
- Cricket
- Cycling
- Football
- Multi events
- Sailing
- Skiing
- Tennis and a range of sports for under 18's.

Membership to Metro Blind Sports is free to under 18's. Subscribe to their newsletter for news of upcoming events.
