Kingston Samaritans

Organisation details

Description of activity

We offer a safe place for you to talk any time you like, in your own way – about whatever's getting to you. You don't have to be suicidal.

Find out why our service works and what you can expect when contacting us.

If you have any concerns about our service before you try it, hear from others about how we've helped them. Please don't suffer alone.

Whatever you're going through, call us free any time, from any phone on 116 123.

We're here round the clock, 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. If you need a response immediately, it's best to call us on the phone. This number is FREE to call. You don't have to be suicidal to call us.

Kingston Samaritans is usually open to receive callers at the door: 7.30am-9.30pm every day.

Being a Samaritan volunteer can help change lives and we are always looking for people to join our training programme and become listening volunteers. Why not come along to one of our Information Sessions to find out more about what this involves. For a full list of our upcoming Information Sessions, please see our Volunteering page or sign up on our Eventbrite page. If you don't think being a listening volunteer is right for you, we are always looking for volunteers to assist with fundraising, recruitment and training admin as well as a whole host of other roles that help keep our branch running.
