Working Well Trust - Kingston Supported Employment Service

Organisation details

Description of activity

Working Well Trust Kingston is a supported employment service that helps adults with autism/asperger's, learning disabilities and mental health conditions take steps towards employment.

We can help you look for training, volunteering and paid employment. We work together with you to help you achieve your goals. We provide tailored one to one support to help you take steps towards your employment goals.

We can help you:

- Reach your employment goals
- Create a CV
- Apply for jobs
- Access training/volunteering
- Contact employers on your behalf
- Negotiate reasonable adjustments in the workplace

How to refer to our service:

- If you have autism/asperger's you can self-refer to our service.
- If you have a learning disability, the Community Learning Disability Team can refer you.
- If you have a mental health condition, the Mental Health Social Care team can refer you.
