Our Creative Therapy supports well-being, expression and mental health. We offer small groups and 1:1s.

All our Creative Therapy services are run by qualified drama therapists experienced in working with autistic children and young people. All our therapies and groups have an assessment process prior to an offer being made to ensure the service is providing the best support for both the individual and the group.

Please email Alycia at therapy@expresscic.org.uk for more information, a referral form and costs. If costs are a barrier to accessing the service, please contact us to discuss.
