

Parent Detectives Workshops 2026: Workshop three- Speech and Language Therapy Reports

12
Nov

⌚ 7.30pm to 9pm
📍 Online.

How can we best understand, then explain a neurodiverse child's strengths and needs when planning for secondary school?

How do we get the right support in place so that children are safe and enabled to learn?

Which specialist tests identify a child's learning profile, provide evidence of needs and access to meaningful strategies?

Explore the options at six, 1.5 hour Parent Detective workshops organised by Action-attainment CIC.

Action-attainment's online workshop programme is for parents and teaching staff of children with hidden, neurodiverse, sensory & communication needs. It examines how we can use vital primary years to plan and prepare for secondary school.

Explore Speech and Language Reports for neurodiverse children when preparing for secondary school transfer. For Primary School parents/staff.

Workshop 3: Speech and Language Reports- Behaviour as Communication

Course leader: Tina Meagher, Talking Tomorrows

Aims of session:

- What to look for to build a profile
- When to consider a Speech and Language Therapy Assessment
- Comprehensive Speech and Language Therapy Assessment
- Ways Speech and Language Therapy can help
