WelCare (Kingston and District)

Organisation details

Description of activity

WelCare House is a place for local families to meet, connect and support each other. We care about parents and parenting and WelCare House has a long history of being friendly and open place where parents and children can build confidence, support each other and get advice. We understand the challenges of parenting and welcome families from all backgrounds to WelCare. We value our friendly personal approach and our longstanding presence in the local community that enables us to provide long-term support for families.

What we offer

We have a drop in service for parents who need advice and support or just a place to go to connect with others.

We organise events and play for families, including during the holidays

We offer Families Connect, targeted support for parents experiencing mental health issues - <http://welcarekingston.org.uk/our-projects/families-connect/>
