Surrey Canoe Club - Paddleability

Organisation details

Description of activity

The club is an inclusive accredited charitable organisation which has won many awards. They offer young people a diverse range of opportunities to begin and sustain an involvement in paddlesport and leadership while developing key skills. Activities are suited to all ability levels with both beginner and improvers/advanced groups available.

Paddleability

Paddleability is about making canoeing as inclusive as possible.

The sessions allow you to exercise, build your confidence, boost concentration, have fun and make new friends.

Photos and video of sessions are available on the club facebook page.
