Go Kingston Volunteering

Organisation details

Description of activity

Go Kingston Volunteering (GKV) is funded by the Royal Borough of Kingston to promote and develop volunteering to people that live, work or study in the borough and are over the age of 16.

We match volunteers to positions at not for profit organisations in Kingston

- Our advisors match you to opportunities that suit your skills and interests
- Appointments last up to an hour and are friendly and informal, as well as private and confidential
- We can also arrange an introductory meeting where you can find out more about the opportunity

Appointments with volunteering advisors are available every day between 10am and 2pm
