Oxygen

Organisation details

Description of activity

Oxygen is a well established youth work charity in Kingston upon Thames set up by local young people and supported by local churches.

Oxygen's tagline is Believing in Young People. All of Oxygen's work seeks to empower young people to develop to their full mental, physical, emotional and spiritual capacities and enable them to realise their potential.

Oxygen undertakes a range of youth work initiatives in Kingston upon Thames and surrounding areas. We engage young people of all faiths in our projects which include open youth work sessions such as after school clubs and youth clubs as well as more targeted interventions around specific issues including Knife Crime, Employment and Education, Leadership Skills and Mentoring. Oxygen also manages delivery of Kingston Street Pastors whose mission is to care, listen and help people in Kingston's night time economy (this includes regular engagement with the homeless).
