Calibre Audio

Organisation details

Description of activity

Calibre Audio is the only national charity in the UK to provide a completely free for life audiobook service to everyone who has a disability that makes reading print difficult.

Who can join?

Calibre Audio is free to join for anyone who has a print disability.

Our digital library service includes:

Unlimited borrowing of over 13,000 unabridged audiobooks

We add more than 700 new books each year

Over 3,000 audiobooks specifically for children and young people

Calibre has the rights to record audiobooks that are not commercially available

Available on streaming, download and memory stick

Free postage and no fines for late or lost audiobooks

Manage your account by email or by phone

Regular podcasts, newsletters and reading suggestions

A friendly, personal, quick service

Younger members

Our collection is crammed full of leading contemporary children's authors, including Michael Morpurgo, Jacqueline Wilson, J.K Rowling, Malorie Blackman, David Walliams, Phillip Pullman – as well as all the classics. We also keep up to date with titles that support the GCSE, A Level and PSHE national curriculum.

Under 16s can also borrow audiobooks from the main collection, other than those with an X-rated restriction (with scenes/language inappropriate for young members).
