Description of eligibility or referral criteria and pathways (if applicable)

If you need baby clothes, toys and equipment you do not need a referral. You can simply pop into The Hub on a Wednesday between 10am and 2pm (last sign in at 1.30pm) to see what we have and choose the items you want. Everything is free of charge. We always have tea and coffee, biscuits and lunch for you too. (If you need help with formula and nappies then talk to us about how to be referred for these items.)

If you are a young parent and would like to know more about our groups then please contact Tanya for more information on tanya.vandalen@ddcc.org.uk or text/call 07379147037

To find out more about the parenting a sensory child course please contact Tanya.

If you are a professional and want to make a referral for a client to receive formula and nappies then please email Tanya for the referral form.
